Quiz: Act IV of Hamlet Surname	Name
1. What does Claudius immediately worry about after Polonius's death?	8. What does Hamlet resolve at the end of his soliloquy in Scene 4?
☐ That Hamlet will confess the truth	☐ To delay revenge no longer
☐ That the people will turn against him	☐ To escape to another country
☐ That Gertrude will reveal everything	☐ To warn his mother again
☐ That Laertes will flee the country	☐ To confess all to the court
2. What is Claudius's plan for Hamlet after the murder?	9. What mental state is Ophelia in after Polonius's death?
☐ To imprison him for treason	☐ Calm but vengeful
☐ To have him tried by the court	☐ Silent and unresponsive
☐ To send him to England at once	☐ Delirious and incoherent
☐ To exile him with Ophelia	☐ Peaceful and resolved
3. How does Hamlet respond when asked where Polonius's body is?	10. What does Ophelia sing about in her madness?
☐ He admits to burying it	☐ Gardens and fairies
☐ He reveals it plainly	☐ Lost love and betrayal
☐ He answers with riddles	☐ War and foreign lands
☐ He blames Rosencrantz	☐ Death and Danish royalty
4. What does Hamlet call Rosencrantz when refusing to tell him the body's location?	11. How does Claudius respond to Ophelia's madness?
☐ A sponge that soaks up the king's words	☐ He sends her to a convent
☐ A rat that scurries for gold	☐ He blames Gertrude for it
☐ A snake with two tongues	☐ He says her grief is dangerous
☐ A jester who dances for lies	☐ He ignores her completely
5. What fate does Claudius secretly plan for Hamlet in England?	12. What does Laertes do upon returning to Elsinore?
☐ To have him crowned by the king	☐ Demands justice for his father
☐ To have him put to death	☐ Pleads for Hamlet's return
☐ To marry him to a foreign noble	☐ Banishes Ophelia from court
☐ To exile him in disguise	☐ Crowns himself as king
6. Who carries the sealed letters that order	13. How does Claudius calm Laertes's anger?
Hamlet's execution?	☐ By promising him money
☐ Horatio and Laertes	☐ By blaming Hamlet directly ☐ Rosencrantz and Guildenstern	☐ By promising revenge together
☐ Fortinbras and his captain	☐ By accusing Gertrude instead
☐ The Norwegian ambassadors	14 What was also be I amit a desire his
7. What does Hamlet reflect on after meeting	14. What news shocks Laertes during his conversation with Claudius?
Fortinbras's captain?	☐ That Hamlet has confessed
☐ The nobility of revenge	☐ That Ophelia is dead
☐ The cost of foreign war	☐ That the ghost returned ☐ His own inaction and delay	☐ That Fortinbras invaded
☐ The fate of Denmark's youth

15. How did Ophelia die, according to Gertrude?	15. What does Hamlet decide while Claudius is praying?
☐ She drowned while picking flowers	☐ To forgive his uncle at last
☐ She fell from a high tower	☐ To challenge him to a duel
☐ She was murdered in the woods	☐ To wait before killing him
☐ She drank poison by accident	☐ To expose him in front of all
16. What is the plan Claudius proposes to kill Hamlet?	16. Why doesn't Hamlet kill Claudius during the prayer?
☐ A trap in the throne room	☐ He pities him in that moment
☐ An ambush in England	☐ He fears immediate punishment
☐ A duel with Laertes using poison	☐ He wants Claudius to die in sin
☐ A staged robbery on the road	☐ He is stopped by Horatio
17. What will Laertes use in the duel to ensure	17. Whom does Hamlet kill in Gertrude's room?
Hamlet's death?	☐ Claudius hiding in the shadows
☐ A hidden blade beneath his cloak	☐ Polonius behind the arras
☐ A poisoned blade tip	☐ Rosencrantz by mistake
☐ A second attacker in disguise	☐ Laertes in a jealous rage
☐ A false surrender trick
	18. What does Gertrude believe about the death
18. What backup plan does Claudius prepare in	in her chamber?
case the blade fails?	☐ Hamlet acted in self-defense
☐ A poison cup for Hamlet	☐ The ghost commanded Hamlet
☐ A collapsing stage trap	☐ Hamlet is truly insane now
☐ A crossbow in the balcony	☐ Polonius planned the whole thing ☐ A guard hidden in the room	19. What does the ghost tell Hamlet during the
19. What does Claudius say about Gertrude and	bedroom scene?
	~ · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	☐ To kill Claudius immediately the poison?	☐ To kill Claudius immediately ☐ To spare Gertrude from harm the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it	☐ To spare Gertrude from harm
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan	☐ To spare Gertrude from harm ☐ To marry Ophelia soon
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup	☐ To spare Gertrude from harm
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan	☐ To spare Gertrude from harm ☐ To marry Ophelia soon
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost?
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV?	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost
the poison? ☐ She must drink first to test it ☐ She is unaware of the poison plan ☐ She helped him choose the cup ☐ She will deliver it to Hamlet 20. What central theme is reinforced in Act IV? ☐ Madness and manipulation ☐ Joy through political alliance ☐ Love as a source of strength ☐ Nature overcoming corruption	 □ To spare Gertrude from harm □ To marry Ophelia soon □ To confess to the murder 20. How does Gertrude react to seeing the ghost? □ She faints in horror □ She speaks directly to it □ She cannot see the ghost